This book is a descriptive and informative account the author's backpacking experiences, complemented by nearly 300 coloured photographs. Walk with the author around Newfoundland visiting outport settlement; photographing caribou in wilderness areas; and hiking the 909 kilometers across the province. Experience, also his adventures in England as he wanders the designated trails and pathways all the way from the Scottish border, south to the English Channel. His trips to aboriginal areas of Northern Ontario and Manitoba, too, will give you viewings of some amazing scenery. A quick flip through the book will show you what to expect and enjoy.
